PENTECOST SUNDAY

Pentecost Sunday

We live in a world torn by conflicting interests, jealousy, aggressiveness, and so many forms of enslavement. All this is the consequence of SIN, from the first to the latest sin that has darkened the horizon of mankind. Left to ourselves, we would have been unable to overcome such destructive forces. That is why God promised and sent the Holy Spirit, as the divine healing Power that can undo the tragedies of division, mistrust, and hatred brought about by human sinfulness.

As we commemorate the descent of the Holy Spirit over the disciples gathered in the Upper Room, let us open our hearts to Him so that we, too, may share in their wonderful experience. May the Holy Spirit fashion us to the likeness of Jesus and into a community characterized by mutual acceptance, appreciation, solidarity, and brotherly love.

Come Holy Spirit

Come, Holy Spirit. Fill the hearts of your faithful and make the fire of your love burn within them. Send forth your spirit and there shall be another creation. And you shall renew the face of the earth. Let us pray: O God, you have instructed the hearts of the faithful by the light of the Holy Spirit. Grant that through the same Holy Spirit we may always be truly wise and rejoice in his consolation. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

WAITING....

The apostles in the Upper Room waiting for Pentecost is an example of waiting for something good. We are all waiting for the opportunity to serve the Lord. The trouble is that sometimes we miss the opportunity to serve Him because unlike the apostles in the Upper Room, we are not waiting in prayer. We must stay united to the Lord and keep an active prayer life, so we are attuned to God's call.

PRAYER TO SAINT ANTHONY OF PADUA

Saint Anthony of Padua,
you endured much discouragement in your life before finding your calling. Help us to find patience in our own lives,
and to trust God to lead
us where we need to go.

You preached by example; help us show
others through example
the truth of our faith.

Amen.

St. Anthony of Padua is one of the most famous disciples of St. Francis of Assisi. He was a famous preacher and worker of miracles in his own day, and throughout the eight centuries since his death he has so generously come to the assistance of the faithful who invoke him, that he is known throughout the world.
